

Tour a working farm, meet local artists, and share home-grown seasonal food, through the summer at the

ChathamArts' 2nd Annual

Potluck in the Pasture

A plentiful supply of small farms and creative artists makes rural Chatham County special. You can learn more about many of them during ChathamArts' second annual "Potluck in a Pasture" series inviting you to tour a working farm, share home-grown seasonal food, and meet local artists monthly throughout the summer.

Join us throughout the summer in celebration of these two local jewels by bringing a potluck dish for eight that includes at least one locally grown ingredient and the recipe to share, as well as a beverage, a lawn chair or blanket and a $10 donation to ChathamArts ($8 for members), $5 for children over 6 ($4 for CA family members).

Sun, May 20 5–7 pm	Sun, June 17 6–8 pm	Sun, July 15 6–8 pm	Sun, August 19 6–8 pm
Horizon Cellars Siler City	Holly Hill Daylily Farm Moncure	Pugh's Cedarbrakes Sheep Farm near Silk Hope	Harland's Creek Farm, west of Pittsboro

Proceeds benefit CHATHAMARTS the non-profit county arts council that supports diverse arts and cultural programs in the schools and the community throughout the year.